Based in Toronto, Jonathan Bendiner joined the TD Economics department in 2013. Prior to TD, Jonathan was employed as an economist with the Ontario Ministry of Finance for eight years carrying out macroeconomic analysis and modeling of the Ontario economy. He holds a Honours Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics from the University of Western Ontario and a M.A. degree in Economics from Carleton University.

As an economist, Jonathan’s chief responsibilities include analyzing and forecasting metro and provincial economies across Canada. Jonathan also contributes regularly to a wide variety of TD publications and provides frequent economic commentary to the media.