New Enhancements to WebBroker – Performance

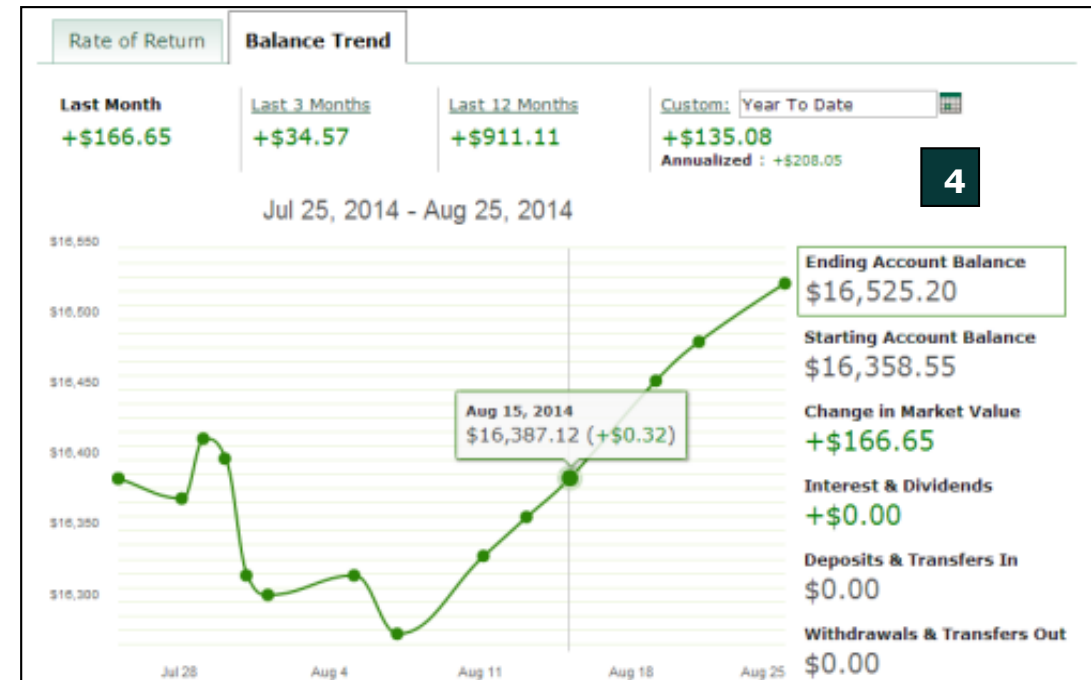

We're pleased let you know that some powerful portfolio performance tools are coming to WebBroker soon. As a TD Direct Investing client, you will be able to:

- See how your portfolio is doing with personalized performance reporting, both as a percentage and dollar amount (as of previous business day).
- Learn how your portfolio's returns compare to benchmarks over time, or set a personal target rate of return.
- View your portfolio balance trend over time with a breakdown of market value changes, investment income and cash flows.

Rate of Return

Balance Trend

NOTABLE FEATURES

- 1 Conveniently view your performance at-a-glance, including one custom rate of return period
- 2 View annualized returns for periods greater than 12 months
- 3 Compare your performance versus major market indices or set your own annual target
- 4 View detailed breakdown of your account balance trends by market value changes, investment income and cash flows

We hope that you enjoy these new enhancements, designed to help you invest with confidence.
