About this guide

This guide is designed to help you get ready to file your taxes. For specific tax advice, please speak to your tax advisor.

In this guide you'll find up-to-date information as of October 31, 2017 about:

- key dates and reminders;
- a list of potential tax receipts (Note: some or all may/may not apply to you);
- recent changes to tax reporting that may affect you;
- answers to frequently asked questions (FAQs).

Important dates to remember

March 1, 2018 - Last day for 2017 RSP¹ contributions

April 30, 2018 - Last day to file your 2017 tax return without incurring a possible penalty²

June 15, 2018 - Last day to file your 2017 Tax Return if you are self-employed without incurring a possible penalty².

If you have a balance owing for 2017, you still have to pay it on or before April 30, 2018

Please note the above dates will apply to most circumstances.

Important information for the 2017 tax year

Minimum withdrawal factors for Retirement Income Funds (RIFs)³ remain the same for 2017

The RIF factors will range from 5.28% at age 71 to 18.79% at age 94. The percentage that seniors will be required to withdraw from their RIF will remain capped at 20% at age 95 and above.

Foreign Income Verification Reporting (Form T1135) (Not applicable if foreign property assets are held in Registered Plans)

Canadian investors that owned specified foreign property in a non-registered account with a total cost amount of more than $100,000 at any time in the year are currently required to complete and file a Foreign Income Verification Statement (Form T1135) for that year. If the total cost of a taxpayer's foreign property is more than $100,000, but less than $250,000 throughout the year, the taxpayer will be able to report these assets to CRA using a simplified foreign asset reporting method on the T1135 form. Clients with foreign property that has a total cost of $250,000 or more at any time during the tax year would need to complete the full T1135 form.

Trading Summary

You will receive a Trading Summary which will capture all of the purchases and dispositions occurring in your account during the year. The Trading Summary will be sent separately from your T5008 tax document.

Linked notes reporting

The federal budget for 2016, which came into effect for the 2017 tax year, introduced changes to the tax laws governing equity linked notes. Any gain realized on the sale of a linked note will be treated as interest income and reported on your T5. The disposition amount on your T5008 will be reduced accordingly.

Anti-avoidance rules extended to Registered Disability and Education Savings Plans (RDSP⁴ and RESP⁵)

The current anti-avoidance and non-qualified investment rules that are in effect for RSP, RIF and TFSA have been extended to RDSP and RESP, effective March 23, 2017. The rules provide for a special tax on prohibited investments and on non-qualified investments held in these plan types.

Return of capital

If you hold a trust unit, limited partnership, split corporation or mutual fund that re-allocates a portion of the original distribution as return of capital, your tax document will reflect this amount. The book value for the asset in your account may be adjusted up to April 2018 and be reflected on your monthly statement; these return of capital amounts need to be factored into calculating any gains/losses.

eServices

Clients registered for eServices can view and retrieve their tax receipts online in WebBroker. You can also import your history for non-registered accounts to a variety of popular money management software programs online by downloading in either CSV (comma separated value) or PDF (portable document) formats. To register for WebBroker and/or eServices, call the WebBroker Help Desk at 1-800-667-6299. Online access to tax receipts through eServices on WebBroker replaces your mailed receipts allowing you to receive your tax information sooner, without any postal delays, and enabling you to print them at your convenience.

Frequently asked questions

Why are there so many different tax package mailings?

As there are various regulatory deadlines associated with tax reporting, TD Waterhouse Canada Inc. and all other institutions are required to deliver these tax documents to you by various dates within the months of January to March. We're always looking for ways to improve and make this process easier for you. Please refer to the table provided for document delivery deadlines.

If I withdraw an amount from my Tax-Free Savings Account (TFSA⁶), can I re-contribute it in the same year?

In any year, your total TFSA contributions cannot exceed your contribution room. If you withdraw funds from your TFSA, that amount will be added to your contribution room for the next year.

Why is only one Social Insurance Number (SIN) listed on my tax slip for my joint account?

Joint account holders' names appear on the tax slip; however the tax slip only allows one SIN to be recorded. The recipient type indicator on the tax slip will enable the CRA to distinguish this as a joint account allowing each individual to report their share of the income on their T1 return.

Will I receive a tax receipt for my U.S. Limited Partnership?

A Schedule K1- Beneficiary's Share of Income, Deductions, Credits, etc., should be issued directly by the U.S. Limited Partnership or their administrator to all clients who held a U.S. limited partnership in the reporting year. The deadline for issuance of K1 forms is the 15th day, of the 4th month, after the end of the partnership tax year, i.e. for a December 31 tax year end the K1 form is required to be issued by no later than April 15, 2018.

Will TD Direct Investing be providing clients with any reporting to assist them in filling out Form T1135?

If you require a Foreign Property report, please contact an Investment Representative at 1-800-465-5463.

Can a Non-Resident Tax Form (NR4) be amended to reduce withholding tax?

Non-resident tax that has been withheld is remitted to the CRA on a monthly basis. The CRA has advised that an NR4 cannot be amended if non-resident tax was withheld in error. Non-residents can claim a refund by filing an NR7-R application. To make sure you're following the right steps, please speak with your tax advisor.

Can I make a spousal RSP contribution online?

As a TD Direct Investing client, you can make a spousal RSP contribution through WebBroker.

On my Summary of Trust Income, I notice that there is a distribution that does not appear in my statements. Why am I being taxed for this?

This is a result of a notional payment. Notional payments are non-cash distributions which are reportable on a T3. Companies will only report these notional payments when they provide their tax factors, usually in February or March. These entries will appear on the client's statements, which will impact the book value of the asset.

How will I know when I have received all my T3 tax slips for trust units?

A "Pending Trust Unit Summary" lists the trust units that you hold but have not yet reported their tax factors. The summary will accompany the first T3 package you receive and subsequent packages if applicable.

Why are foreign spin-offs reported on the T5?

Subject to the comments below under How can I defer the tax on my U.S./Foreign spin-offs, a Canadian resident who receives shares from a foreign spin off generally has to include the fair market value of the foreign spin-off shares received in a non-registered account on their tax return. The foreign spin-off is considered to be a taxable foreign dividend and TD Waterhouse Canada Inc. is required to report the fair market value of the spin-off on your T5 tax slip.

How can I defer the tax on my U.S./Foreign spin-offs?

As a Canadian tax resident shareholder, you may be able to defer Canadian tax on the spin-off shares by making an election if the spin-off meets certain conditions. Efile™ and Netfile™ cannot be used to file the return for the tax year to which the election relates. For more information, please visit the CRA website:
