 77 Bloor Street West, 2nd floor, Toronto, ON M5S 1M2 Email: TD.RESPFaxDocuments@td.com

Step 1: Provide RESP Account Details (Complete a separate withdrawal form for each Beneficiary)

RESP Account #: _____

Subscriber and/or Joint Subscriber: _____

Beneficiary Name: _____ Beneficiary Social Insurance Number _____

I declare that the beneficiary is a Canadian resident. If the beneficiary is a non-resident, refer to eligibility requirements detailed in the non-resident beneficiary information provided.

Step 2: Indicate Withdrawal Type - Must be completed. (Please refer to "Type of Withdrawals" explanations on page 2)

Please ensure you consider all available options, as there may be different tax consequences associated with each option.

If the Educational Assistance Payment (EAP) portion of the plan (Grant & income growth) is not sufficient or available to satisfy the withdrawal request, then Post-Secondary Educational Capital Withdrawal (PSE) will be withdrawn by default for the difference. Refer to the acceptable proof of enrolment information for EAP and PSE withdrawals.

Non-Resident Beneficiary Eligibility Information

- If a non-resident beneficiary attends post-secondary school in the country where they live, he or she may use some, but not all of the funds that have accumulated in an RESP. Note that the subscriber can receive the original contributions as a tax-free return of capital at any time.
- If a non-resident beneficiary who is enrolled in a qualifying program requests an EAP, investment income that has been earned in the RESP may still be included in the EAP, even though the beneficiary is not a resident of Canada when the payment is made.
- Withdrawals of investment income and growth will be subject to non-resident withholding tax at a rate of 25%, unless reduced by a tax treaty.
- The payment can only be paid when the beneficiary starts attending post-secondary school.
- Non-resident beneficiaries cannot receive payments of CESG. If the beneficiary is still a non-resident at the time they attend a post-secondary educational institution, the CESG will be returned to Employment and Social Development Canada.
- Keep in mind that tax legislation in the beneficiary's country of residence may also apply. For example, if the beneficiary is a U.S. person, the income that has accumulated in the plan will be taxable to the beneficiary when it is withdrawn. However, a special prescribed tax and interest charge are calculated based on the accumulated income distributed from the plan. This results in the income being taxed as if it had been earned over the lifetime of the RESP.

Types of Withdrawal

1. Educational Assistance Payment (EAP) (include current proof of enrolment)

- The beneficiary must be a Canadian resident and enrolled in full-time or part-time studies at a post-secondary institution.
- EAP is a taxable withdrawal paid to the beneficiary only. It is composed of income growth and grant money only. The beneficiary will receive a T4A slip (and a Relevé 1 slip for Québec Residents). For RESPs opened after 1998, the maximum amount of EAPs that can be made to a student as soon as he or she qualifies to receive them is:

Grant includes the following when applicable:

- CESG refers to Canada Education Savings Grant (applicable to all beneficiaries resident in Canada; not applicable to beneficiaries who are non-resident)
 - QESI refers to Québec Education Savings Incentive. (Must be resident of Quebec)
 - BCTESG refers to the British Columbia Training and Education Savings Grant (Must be resident of B.C)
 - SAGES refers to the Saskatchewan Advantage Grant for Education Savings (Must be a resident of Saskatchewan)
 - For Full-Time Students: A maximum of $5,000 in the 12-month period ending on the payment date until the beneficiary completes 13 consecutive weeks in a qualifying educational program. After the 13 consecutive weeks in a qualifying education program have been completed, there is no limit on the amount of EAP that can be paid if the student continues to qualify to receive them. If the beneficiary receives an EAP and then takes a break of 12 months, the threshold of $5000.00 full-time studies will apply again. There are no limits on an EAP amount for plans opened prior to 1999.
 - For Part-Time Students: A maximum of $2,500 in the 13-week period ending on the payment date if the beneficiary is at least 16 and is enrolled in a specified educational program. However, for study outside of Canada at a university, the minimum course duration is three consecutive weeks for Canadian students enrolled on a full-time basis.
 - If you choose an EAP, it will be calculated over the entire plan and may result in a disproportionate payment of grant to one beneficiary of a multiple beneficiary plan.
 - EAP amount over $24,000.00 will require a list of expenses/invoices on a letter of direction of how the funds are being used for educational purposes. The EAP threshold limit of $24,000.00 is indexed annually by the consumer price index.
- 2. Post-Secondary Educational Capital Withdrawal (PSE) (include current proof of enrolment)
- This is a non-taxable withdrawal paid to the beneficiary or subscriber. It is composed of contributed capital only. There will be no tax slip issued for this type of withdrawal. To be eligible for this type of withdrawal, the named beneficiary must meet the same requirements necessary for an EAP withdrawal.
- 3. Non-Educational Capital Withdrawal (NCW)
- This is a non-taxable withdrawal paid to the subscriber of the RESP. There will be no tax slip issued for this type of withdrawal. It is composed of contributed capital only. Please note that all associated grant will be returned to Employment and Social Development Canada (ESDC) and Revenue Quebec (RQ) (if applicable) upon completion of this withdrawal.
