What does the fund invest in?

The fund seeks to earn current income by investing primarily in North American fixed income securities, while following a socially responsible approach to investing. The fund's investments will focus on corporate bonds, which may include non-investment grade bonds, using rigorous bottom-up security selection while also being mindful of the macro environment. A significant portion of the fund's portfolio will also be allocated to green, social, sustainability and/or sustainability-linked bonds. Such bond investments will be considered those that have strong sustainability characteristics and/or positively contribute toward the Sustainable Development Goals ("SDGs") as set out by the United Nations. The SDGs are a set of 17 integrated and indivisible goals set out by the United Nations, acting as a call for action by all countries to promote prosperity while protecting the planet. The SDGs address a range of global challenges, including those related to poverty, inequality, climate change, environmental degradation, peace and justice. In addition, the fund may, but is not required to, hedge any or all foreign currency exposure.

TD North American Sustainability Bond Fund – D-Series

How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

TDAM has rated the volatility of this fund as low.

This rating is based on how much the fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see the section entitled "What are the risks of investing in the Fund?" in the fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this fund is not guaranteed or insured. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how D-Series securities of the fund performed over the past year. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the fund's returns.

Year-by-year returns

This chart shows how D-Series securities of the fund performed in the past completed calendar year. The fund did not drop in value for the year.

The range of returns and change from year to year can help you assess how risky the fund has been in the past. It does not tell you how the fund will perform in the future.

Best and worst 3-month returns

This table shows the best and worst returns for D-Series securities of the fund in a 3-month period over the past year. The best and worst 3-month returns could be higher or lower in the future. Consider how much of a loss you could afford to take in a short period of time.

	Return	3 months ending	If you invested $1,000 at the beginning of the period
Best return	8.6%	January 31, 2024	Your investment would rise to $1,086.
Worst return	-2.2%	April 30, 2024	Your investment would drop to $978.

Average return

As of May 31, 2025, the annual compounded return of D-Series securities of the fund was 4.0% since inception. If you had invested $1,000 in D-Series securities of the fund since inception, your investment would now be worth $1,092.

Who is this fund for?

This fund may be suitable for investors who:

- are investing for the medium to long-term
- want to invest in a fund with a socially responsible approach to investing
- are seeking a regular income stream
- are contributing to the fixed income portion of a diversified portfolio
- can handle small changes in the value of their investment

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay and/or when you pay depends on the tax laws where you live, the type of distributions made by the fund and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, you must include taxable fund distributions in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell D-Series securities of the fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.
