What does the fund invest in?

The fund seeks to achieve long-term capital growth by investing primarily in equity securities of issuers located anywhere in the world. The fund seeks to achieve this by utilizing a disciplined quantitative equity strategy that exploits market inefficiencies related to the pricing and valuations of securities in order to generate alpha. The strategy will be model-driven, and the models will be followed in a disciplined manner by the portfolio adviser in managing the active risk, expected return, and turnover of the fund's portfolio according to those models.

TD Global Disciplined Equity Alpha Fund™ – D-Series*How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much a fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

TDAM has rated the volatility of this fund as medium.

This rating is based on how much the fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

Low	Low to Medium	Medium	Medium to High	High
-----	---------------	---------------	----------------	------

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see the section entitled "What are the risks of investing in the Fund?" in the fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this fund is not guaranteed or insured. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how D-Series securities of the fund performed since inception. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the fund's returns.

Who is this fund for?

This fund may be suitable for investors who:

- are investing for the medium to long-term
- are seeking global equity exposure in the growth component of a diversified portfolio
- can handle the ups and downs of the stock market

This fund may not be suitable for investors seeking a steady source of income.

A word about tax

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on a fund. How much you pay and/or when you pay depends on the tax laws where you live, the type of distributions made by the fund and whether or not you hold the fund in a registered plan such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, you must include taxable fund distributions in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell D-Series securities of the fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among series of a fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1 Sales charges

This series is available on a "no-load" basis which means that you do not pay a sales charge when you buy this series.

2 Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the fund's returns.

As of December 31, 2024, the fund's expenses were 1.17% of its average value. This equals $11.70 for every $1,000 invested.
