TD Small Business Loan Application Customer Disclosure Page

Below are the disclosures that have been provided to you in a format which you can retain for your records.

Right to a Copy of Appraisal:

If we are securing your loan with real estate, we may order an appraisal to determine the property's value and charge you for this appraisal. In the event the property is a 1 to 4 family residential property, we will promptly give you a copy of any such appraisal upon its completion or at least three (3) business days prior to closing. We will also give you a copy of any such appraisal even if your loan does not close. You may request a reconsideration of value (ROV) if you have concerns regarding the accuracy of your appraisal or written valuation report. Contact your Small Business Relationship Manager to initiate the reconsideration of value (ROV) process.

Representations, Acknowledgments and Agreements:

The applicant has certified that: (i) the applicant intends to apply for credit for the purpose indicated in the application, (ii) all information provided in the application and any addendum, attachment and supporting documentation is true, accurate and complete, and if the information submitted changes before closing of any loan, this information must be updated and/or supplemented, (iii) the applicant's intent is to apply for business purpose credit and such credit will not be used for personal, family, or household purposes, (iv) submission of this application does not create a commitment to lend, and (v) the applicant and any guarantor may be required to submit additional information to process this application.

The Lender is hereby authorized to share the information provided in the application, together with the results of the investigation of the credit and financial condition of the applicant and any proposed guarantor, with its service providers for delivery and refinement of the Lender's products, the U.S. Small Business Administration and/or the Lender's affiliates, including TD Equipment Finance, Inc. for suggestion of credit and deposit products.

If you provide a cell phone number to us on the TD Bank Small Business Loan Application, you consent to and agree to accept calls to your cell phone from us and our agents including calls that may be automatically dialed and/or may consist of pre-recorded messages.

Fair Credit Reporting Act and other Credit Reporting:

The Bank will rely on the following representations and agreements of the business and any guarantors: (i) the business and any prospective guarantors have authorized the Bank and any of its agents on a continuing basis to obtain and use any information (including, but not limited to, consumer credit reports, any investigative consumer reports on any individual who is an applicant or proposed guarantor, and business credit reports) for any purpose the Bank deems necessary and appropriate for this application or otherwise, including, without limitation, to make employment or other inquiries deemed appropriate by the Bank in connection with any request for credit and in connection with any account update, renewal, extension or review; it being understood that an electronic image of the application will also serve as authorization, (ii) the Bank may report information about any account to consumer reporting agencies, business credit reporting agencies, and others who may properly receive that information, (iii) late payments, missed payments, or other defaults on any account may be reflected in any applicant's or any guarantor's credit reports, (iv) the business (if an individual) and any guarantor (if an individual) has a right to ask if a consumer credit report was requested, and if a report was requested, and if such individual asks, will be informed of the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished such individual consumer credit report, and (v) using business credit reports and furnishing to business credit bureaus is not subject to the Fair Credit Reporting Act ("FCRA"); it is at the Bank's sole discretion to provide similar access or information to business credit reports that is provided for individual consumer credit reports subject to the FCRA.

Patriot Act Authorization:

Lender complies with section 326 of the USA Patriot Act. Lender may also ask to see your driver's license or any other photo identifying documentation. This law mandates that Lender verify certain information about you, including your name, legal address, date of birth, and Social Security or tax identification number, while processing your account application.

Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA):

If it is determined that your loan application is HMDA eligible:

The HMDA Regulation requires banks to collect demographic information on applicants when they are individual persons and their loan request is determined to be HMDA reportable.

The purpose of collecting this information is to help ensure that all applicants are treated fairly and that the housing needs of communities and neighborhoods are being fulfilled. For residential mortgage lending, Federal law requires that we ask applicants for their demographic information (ethnicity, race, and sex) in order to monitor our compliance with equal credit opportunity, fair housing, and home mortgage disclosure laws. You are not required to provide this information but are encouraged to do so. When completing the Data Collection Form, you may select one or more designations for "Ethnicity" and one or more designations for "Race."

The law provides that we may not discriminate on the basis of this information, or on whether you choose to provide it. However, if you choose not to provide the information and you have made this application in person, Federal regulations require us to note your ethnicity, race, and sex on the basis of visual observation or surname.
