
Corporate Responsibility Governance Structure

Corporate responsibility is a key part of TD's strategy and is managed within a governance structure which balances broad engagement across the organization while also providing line-of-sight accountability.

The Corporate Governance Committee

- Oversees TD's corporate responsibility strategy and performance.
- Stays informed of international trends and best practices in corporate disclosure of non-financial performance.
- Includes board-level competency on sustainability topics.

Group President and Chief Executive Officer

- Bharat Masrani has primary responsibility for ensuring TD acts as an exemplary corporate citizen.
- Colleen Johnston, a member of TD's Senior Executive Team leads the direction of TD's corporate responsibility reporting and strategy.

Corporate Citizenship Council

- Represents business group heads from Canadian and U.S Retail, Wholesale, Compliance, Human Resources, Marketing and Corporate Communications.
- Discusses corporate responsibility topics and provides guidance on TD's strategy, current performance and future direction.
- Stays informed on emerging environmental and social issues and the impact to stakeholders.

The Corporate Responsibility Steering Committee

- Operates at the vice-president level and includes many functions across TD.
- The committee directs the ongoing development of TD's corporate responsibility strategy and program improvements.
- Chaired by the Vice President of Community Relations.
