

Working Together

In 2013 TD worked with over 750 organizations – large and small – to grow natural capital either through protecting critical forest habitat or enhancing urban green spaces as part of the design of sustainable cities, brings us all together. Here are some examples.

Canadian Parks and Wilderness Society	TD supports CPAWS work to protect woodland caribou and the boreal forest
Forest Stewardship Council	TD is supporting FSC's work towards applying the values of Free, Prior, Informed Consent into FSC's Forest Management Standards.
Ontario College of Art and Design	TD was the lead sponsor of the first Urban Ecologies conference.
Ontario Forestry Association	TD supports OFA's participation in Envirothon which is a unique high school team competition that rewards students for learning about the natural world around them.
Canadian Institute of Forestry	TD supports the work of the CIF which promotes competence among forestry professionals, and foster public awareness of Canadian and international forestry issues.
SW Boston Community Dvlpt, Boston Mass.	Hyde Park Green Team youth and community training to restore urban wilds
Coopers Ferry Development Assoc., Camden NJ	Camden SMART Initiative, collaborative network to develop and implement green infrastructure programs
Tree Canada	TD Green Streets is the flagship program of Tree Canada, and the only nationally-based municipal forestry innovation program in Canada. Since its inception in 1994, almost 500 Canadian municipalities have received Green Streets funding.
Nature Conservancy of Canada (NCC)	With support from the TD Forests program, NCC works to enlarge areas of protected forest habitat, especially in southern Canada, where forests are most threatened by development.
The Nature Conservancy (TNC)	With funds from the TD Forests program, TNC secures and protects critical forestlands in the United States.
Million Trees New York	TD Bank has pledged a multi-year commitment of $1.5 million to the New York Restoration Project (NYRP) to support MillionTreesNYC, a citywide tree planting program. TD Bank's commitment will enable the program to achieve its goal of planting and caring for one million trees across the five boroughs of New York by 2015 – two years earlier than projected.
Upstate Forever, Greenville SC	Value Your Trees program
