¹ A credit rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities, and it may be subject to revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating organization.

² Under Rule 15c6-1 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, trades in the secondary market generally are required to settle in two business days, unless the parties to such trade expressly agree otherwise. Accordingly, purchasers who wish to trade the Notes prior to two business days before settlement will be required, by virtue of the fact that the Notes initially will settle in five business days (T+5), to specify alternative settlement arrangements to prevent a failed settlement.

Day Count Convention:	Actual/360
Interest Periods:	Each quarterly period from, and including, an Interest Payment Date (or, in the case of the first Interest Period, January 10, 2022) to, but excluding, the next Interest Payment Date (or, in the case of the final Interest Period, the Maturity Date).
Interest Payment Dates:	Quarterly, on January 10, April 10, July 10, and October 10 of each year, beginning on April 10, 2022 (short first coupon) and ending on the Maturity Date.
Interest Payment Determination Date:	The date two U.S. Government Securities Business Days before each Interest Payment Date.
Observation Period:	In respect of each Interest Period, the period from, and including, the date two U.S. Government Securities Business Days preceding the first date in such Interest Period to, but excluding, the date two U.S. Government Securities Business Days preceding the Interest Payment Date for such Interest Period.
Business Day Convention:	Modified following; adjusted
Business Day:	Any weekday that is a U.S. Government Securities Business Day and is not a legal holiday in New York or Toronto and is not a date on which banking institutions in those cities are authorized or required by law or regulation to be closed.
U.S. Government Securities Business Day:	Any day except for a Saturday, a Sunday or a day on which the Securities Industry and Financial Markets Association recommends that the fixed income departments of its members be closed for the entire day for purposes of trading in U.S. government securities.
Canadian Bail-in Provisions:	The Notes are bail-inable notes (as defined in the accompanying prospectus supplement) and subject to conversion in whole or in part — by means of a transaction or series of transactions and in one or more steps — into common shares of the Bank or any of its affiliates under subsection 39.2(2.3) of the Canada Deposit Insurance Corporation Act (the “CDIC Act”) and to variation or extinguishment in consequence, and subject to the application of the laws of the Province of Ontario and the federal laws of Canada applicable therein in respect of the operation of the CDIC Act with respect to the Notes. See “Description of the Debt Securities — Terms Specific to Senior Debt Securities — Special Provisions Related to Bail-inable Debt Securities” and “Risk Factors — Risks Related to the Bank’s Bail-inable Debt Securities” in the accompanying prospectus supplement and base prospectus.
Calculation Agent:	The Bank of New York Mellon
Optional Redemption by Holders of Notes:	Not applicable.

Optional Redemption by the Issuer for Tax Reasons:

In certain circumstances where the Issuer has or will become obligated to pay additional amounts (as described in the pricing supplement), the Issuer may, at its option, redeem the Notes in whole, but not in part, at any time before maturity, after giving not less than 10 nor more than 60 calendar days' notice to the holders of the Notes, at a redemption price equal to 100% of their principal amount together with accrued interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date. See "Terms of the Notes — Redemption for Tax Reasons" in the pricing supplement.
