Paul Orlander

Senior Vice President, Personal Savings & Investing and Personal Deposits Solutions & Controls

As Senior Vice President, Personal Savings & Investing and Personal Deposits Solutions & Controls, Paul's team and portfolio includes: Personal Savings Accounts (Retail and Wealth), TD Mutual Funds sold through the TD Canada Trust network, and GICs, Market Growth and Registered Plan Products.

Most recently, Paul was Senior Vice President, Personal Banking and Wealth Strategy responsible for strategy development. Prior to that, he served as President, TD Mutual Funds where he provided leadership for one of Canada's premier mutual fund companies with more than $100 billion in assets under management. Paul was responsible for the profitability, growth and distribution of the mutual funds award-winning product line through multiple distribution channels. Paul also led Products, Services and Strategy at TD Wealth.

Prior to joining TD in 2011, Paul was a Partner and Managing Director at The Boston Consulting Group. He was a core member of the Global Financial Services Practice focusing on advising financial service clients on issues of strategy, organization and performance improvement. Prior to his consulting career, Paul worked in the Mergers and Acquisitions group at Lehman Brothers (New York).

Paul has an M.B.A. from the Kellogg School at Northwestern University, and a Bachelor of Arts in Honors Business Administration from the University of Western Ontario.